

An aerial photograph of a town and its surrounding landscape. The town is characterized by a dense grid of buildings with reddish-brown roofs. To the left, a river flows through the landscape, crossed by a bridge. The surrounding area consists of green and brown agricultural fields. Numerous red and yellow circular markers with black symbols are placed across the map, primarily within the town's boundaries and along the river. These markers likely represent specific data points or locations of interest.

Capoluogo

Frazione di Salionze